(10) the executive branch, to the fullest extent possible, minimize its expenditure of federal stimulus money on administrative costs;

2010.

- (11) the executive branch, to the fullest extent allowed by law, strive to ensure that projects and programs funded with federal stimulus money hire Alaska workers and use Alaska contractors and vendors and minimize the use of out-of-state consultants;
- (12) federal stimulus money for energy or energy-related programs be used to help reduce energy costs of Alaskans whenever possible and practical;
- (13) federal stimulus money for education programs be spent for bestpractices improvements, training, equipment, services, and facility modernization, renovation, and repair that do not expand programs or create continuing obligations for state funding when federal stimulus money is exhausted;
- (14) school districts focus on short-term investment with long-term gains for student and teacher performance and pay particular attention to the advisory statement issued by the United States Department of Education that "These funds should be invested in ways that do not result in unsustainable continuing commitments after the funding expires."
- (b) It is the intent of the legislature that the two positions funded in sec. 11 of this Act coordinate compliance with the accounting and reporting requirements related to P.L. 111-5 (American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009).
- from the general fund to the Department of Administration, division of finance, to fund two positions and related office expenses relating to accounting and reporting requirements of P.L. 111-5 (American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009) for the fiscal year ending June 30,
- * Sec. 12. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES. (a) Federal receipts from the federal economic stimulus funding received by the state under the federal medical assistance program (sec. 1905(b), Social Security Act) for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2009, and June 30, 2010, are appropriated to the Department of Health and Social Services for Medicaid programs, as allowed by the federal medical assistance program.
- (b) If federal receipts under (a) of this section that are received during the fiscal years ending June 30, 2009, and June 30, 2010, exceed the amounts appropriated for Medicaid programs by this Act or another Act making appropriations passed by the Twenty-Sixth
